For Sale, I have a 2002 Chevy Silverado Step side. The truck has 163,000 miles (mostly highway miles), it is mechanically sound and has the double din conversion, just encase someone wanted to drop in a nice double din dvd/ gps deck; i use to have a pioneer double din in there!. This truck has new tires on there, they are at 9/32. Just encase you dont know what that means, a new tires usually has 10/32 on it. The truck has 275/60/17 inch tires and it comes with some polished (not chrome) American Racing wheels on it. It also comes with a hard top cover for the bed of the truck, matching red color, took it of because of the summer weather. The truck is garage kept and gets waxed twice a year. The oil change gets done every 3,000 miles or every two months, depending on what comes first. The only reason why i am selling my truck is because I have a family and a dog, which means we do not fit. Hablo Espanol !!!!!!!!!!!!!

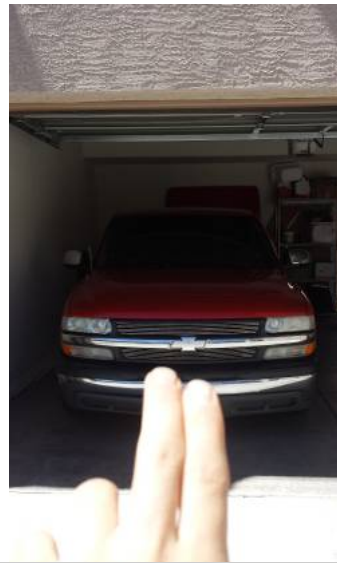

Willing to trade for a Jeep Wrangler. Hard top and AC preferred !!!!!
